Incorporated: 1722

Origin: This region was settled by Scotch colonists in 1718 at the encouragement of Massachusetts Governor Samuel Shute, when New Hampshire was still considered part of that colony. It was at that time known as Nutfield because of heavily wooded areas. In 1722, the township was incorporated as Londonderry, after the town in Ireland from where many of the settlers had come. At the time, Londonderry was the second-largest town in New Hampshire, and included all or part of Derry, Manchester, and Windham. Early Londonderry settlers spread out into surrounding villages, bringing Scottish and Irish names such as Antrim, Derry, and Dunbarton.

Villages and Place Names: North Londonderry, West Derry, Wilson

Population, Year of the First Census Taken: 2,622 residents in 1790

Population Trends: Londonderry had the sixth largest percent change and the fifth largest numeric change over 53 years. Population change totaled 21,851, from 2,457 in 1960 to 24,308 in 2013. The largest decennial percent change was an 154 percent increase between 1970 and 1980, which followed an 118 percent increase the previous decade. The 2013 Census estimate for Londonderry was 24,308 residents, which ranked tenth among New Hampshire's incorporated cities and towns.

Population Density and Land Area, 2013 (US Census Bureau): 578.3 persons per square mile of land area. Londonderry contains 42.0 square miles of land area and 0.1 square miles of inland water area.
